The Beardie Bulletin is the official magazine of the Bearded Collie Club of America. It is published three times a year and includes educational as well as entertaining articles, statistics, reports and announcements about Beardies and the Club's activities. Also included are ads from proud Beardie owners and kennels around the world.

The subscription starts with the Specialty issue in November and ends with the Summer issue the following August, for a total of three issues. You may subscribe to the Beardie Bulletin at any time throughout the year; the fee will be prorated.
