VERSATILITY NEWS

Joanne Williamson • balgrae@ix.netcom.com

One more team received a versatility award at the 2022 Nationals in addition to those listed in the September Bagpipes, Meadows' Miss Dinahmite BN NA NAJ CGC TKN, owned by Carolyn Hoffmann and Eileen Eaton.

In addition, four teams completed the requirements for a VA in September:

- Allaround Southern Roots RA NAJ BCAT CGC TKI, owned by Andrea Hobe
- CH Maccorkindale Windward Joy RN CGCA TKN, owned by Stephen & Kandis Swan
- CH Meadows' Alpine Holiday RN FDC CGC TKN, owned by Thomas Burnside & Claudia McNulty
- CH Rhosown's Celebrate Every Day RATCHX32 DSA, owned by Sheree Girty & Lois Zebrouvis

All of the 2022 versatility certificates have now been mailed. If you don't receive yours by mid-November please let me know.

I have gotten several e-mails of late asking whether requirements for a versatility award had been met for a particular dog/award, so I thought it might be helpful to review the award requirements here.

First, ALL titles AKC adds to a dog's permanent record are counted for versatility awards. These titles are published every month by AKC in the New Titles report which you will find in the Bagpipes Extra Edition. As versatility chair, I keep track of which Beardies have completed versatility awards. There is no need to apply for BCCA versatility awards! Every month I publish new award winners in the versatility news. That doesn't mean though I don't occasionally miss a qualifier. If you think your Beardie has completed the requirements for an award please contact me so I can correct my error. Awards are earned throughout the year but the recognition certificates are only given out at Nationals. The 2022 awards to be presented at Virginia Beach will be given for titles earned between July, 2021 and August, 2022.

There are nine venues a Beardie can title in; agility, conformation, herding, obedience, rally, therapy, scent sports (scent work/barn hunt/search & rescue), tracking and miscellaneous (includes titles from activities like coursing ability, FastCAT, dock diving, fly ball, CGC and related tests, trick dog, temperament test, virtual manners and virtual obedience).

To complete a Versatility Award (VA), a Beardie must earn at least five titles in at least three of the venues. Any mix of venues/titles will work as long as the numbers add up to three/five. For example, "Shaggy" would earn a VA if he/she were CH Shaggy BN RI CGC (four venues/five titles) or CH Shaggy BN RN HT BCAT (five venues/five titles) or Shaggy RN HT PT HSAs THN (three venues/five titles). or Shaggy TD BHN CGC CGCA TKN (three venues/five titles). These are only a few examples; you can pick and choose to work for whatever combination of venues/titles appeals to your interests and your Beardie's talents.

To complete a Versatility Excellent Award (VX), a Beardie must earn at least 10 titles in at least four venues. No more than five titles can be counted toward a VX from any one venue. In addition, in at least three of the four titling venues, more than one title must be earned. This additional requirement is what seems to cause the most confusion. To give you just one example, GCH Shaggy BN RN HT CGC CGCA BCAT TKI has NOT yet completed a VX. He/She has two titles in conformation, one in obedience, one in rally, one in herding and five in miscellaneous or 10 titles total in five venues but only in two venues, conformation and miscellaneous, does Shaggy have more than one title. In order to complete a VX, a title needs to be added in obedience, rally or herding to bring the multiple-titled venue count up to three.

To complete a Master of Versatility Award (MV), a Beardie must earn at least 15 titles in at least five venues. No more than six titles can be counted from any one venue. In addition, the Beardie must have earned a championship title from the following list which cannot be counted toward the total title count and must have earned at least an HT in herding.

VENUE	QUALIFYING CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE
Agility	MACH, AGGCH, NAC
Conformation	BIS, National Specialty BOB, GCHG
Herding	HC
Obedience	OTCH, NOC
Rally	RACH, NRC
Therapy	DTHD
Scent Sports	Barn Hunt CH
Tracking	CT
Miscellaneous	None

Current;y there are several Beardies who have met all of the qualifications for an MV except they have no herding title. An instinct title (AKC or BCCA) does not meet this requirement.

Since 2000, when Britannia Chip Thrills completed the first MV, 27 Beardies have reached these heights. As you can see from the list below, they have done so in lots of different ways.

STANDING RULE 9 COMMITTEE REPORT

Lynne Corn, Chair

To the beardie folks, regarding recent changes in Section 9 of the BCCA’s Standing Rules.

Here is a list of the comments, followed by the board’s rationale in making the changes it did. They are listed in roughly decreasing order of the frequency of the comment, although that is a judgment call about how to count re-iterations of the same comment by the same author.

- Many comments expressed regret about the loss of the circulating trophies. The board certainly shares this regret. However, there is no real way to reverse the two factors that precipitated these changes: (a) the cost of shipping and storing the enormous volume and weight of these trophies; and just as important, (b) the tremendous demand on the time, patience, and just plain hard work from the person who takes charge of them. Several pickup trucks would be needed to transport all these trophies and their big packing cases to a shipping office. It had become insupportable.
- On the other hand, several commenters offered strong endorsements of the changes, and some mentioned one of the problems mentioned above.
- Some comments faulted the offering of awards to non-members or winners in Novice A levels in agility, obedience, and rally. However, many puppies are put in pet homes and the member-breeder is not a co-owner. If this dog in then shown in “A” level classes, these dogs are not eligible for BCCA awards. The board felt that we should giving these awards to the winners along with applications for club membership. Moreover, if the past is any guide, the data show that such wins by non-members happen only once every few years.

- One comment faulted the higher remaining awards for herding, compared to other venues such as conformation and agility. This difference is an accident of history, rather than policy. Conformation, for example, had a number of large, circulating trophies, while the awards in herding often have been certificates or keepsakes that go home with the winner; in some cases, keepsake awards are in process to substitute for the older trophies. The new Section 9 does not close the door on future similar types of keepsake awards in the various venues.
- Two comments focused on awards for venues for relatively new performance events like barn hunt, scent work, and others. While there isn’t time to create such awards for the 2022 national, we are happy to report that there are efforts underway to provide some recognition in 2023.
- Finally, there were some technical comments on numbering, indentations, etc. All of these were corrected or addressed.

We appreciate the thoughtful responses from our members.

CONFORMATION NEWS

Rosie Schroeder, Michele Ritter, Joanne Williamson

The recent revision of the BCCA standing rules on awards (SR9) adjusted the number of offspring required for a sire to receive an ROM (from 5 to 4) or ROMX (from 15 to 12) or a dam, an ROMX (from 10 to 7). According to club records, the following beardies are now eligible for these conformation awards. Some of the dogs earned these awards decades ago. Not surprisingly, many of their owners are no longer club members
