BEARDIE TITLING STATS

Some time ago a couple of people asked me if I thought it would be possible to have an annual versatility award to recognize the Beardie who was most successful at competing in multiple venues during a single calendar year. Although hundreds of Beardies have earned versatility awards since the program was started in 1987, most compete in one venue at a time and I wasn't sure how many Beardies actually compete in multiple areas in a single year.

As a start to collecting data on this question, I combined all the AKC new titles reports for 2017 and sorted them by dog's name. 322 Beardies earned a total of 705 AKC titles in 2017 in the seven areas of competition that count toward BCCA versatility awards.

The titles earned include 98 in conformation, 297 in agility, 81 in herding, 29 in obedience, 50 in rally, 14 in therapy, 1 in tracking and 135 in miscellaneous. 241 of the Beardies, or almost 75% of the total, earned one or more titles in a single venue, most in either conformation or agility; 54 or 17% earned titles in two venues; 19 or 6% completed titles in 3 venues; 6 or 2% completed titles in 4 venues; 1 completed titles in 5 venues and, finally, 1 completed titles in 6 venues. The 2017 new title data show a significant number of Beardies, 27, competed successfully in 3 or more venues during the competition year.

Obviously, counting titles earned in different venues doesn't reveal the successes of all Beardies. Clearly, some titles take longer to earn than others and many teams made progress during the year to that end. In agility, where I have access to the qualifying data, I know that although 106 Beardies earned titles, there were another 35 who earned legs but no titles.

I'm sure this is the case in other venues as well. But I think even the stats based on titles earned are pretty impressive and show that many are up to the challenge of competing in multiple venues during a single year.

HERDING NEWS

Elsa Sell, BCCA Herding Chair • beaconbb@bellsouth.net

Reminder – Send your nominations for the 2019 specialty herding trial to me by 3/15. Give your reasons why a judge would be suitable for the specialty; include your highest trial title.

Recent Years' AKC Titles and Qualifying Runs. The number of new titles is about the same while the number of qualifying runs has increased. The percentage of qualifying runs on ducks at each level has increased between 2015 and 2017. The large number of qualifying runs no doubt reflects work toward a Masters title or the Herding Championship.

A course continues to dominate so numbers for A and B courses are combined. I encourage regional clubs to consider offering the BCCA HIC at one of their events. Remember your awe and thrill (and I cried) the first time one of your Beardies enjoyed an instinct test? Endeavor to give others a chance to witness instinct in their Beardie and to have those feelings.

YEARLY BCCA HERDING AWARDS

The awards will be published after AKC herding corrects some errors from trials in December. Without a complete and accurate AKC report, we can't do the calculations for awards. BE SURE YOU KEEP ALL SCORE SHEETS AND QUALIFYING RIBBONS FOR EVERY AKC TRIAL AND CHECK THE AKC WEBSITE WITHIN A MONTH OF A TRIAL TO INSURE CORRECT INFORMATION EXISTS AT AKC!

AKC AND AHBA TITLES REPORTS

Titles through December 2017 are posted in separate AKC and AHBA reports on the web page - <http://beardedcollicieclub.us/activities/herding/herding-titles/>

These are long so you may want to review online rather than print. Let me know if there are any errors or titles missing. Remember that ASCA titles are not recorded as it has been impossible to locate official records. Corrected reports will be posted later in the spring.

HERDING IN HARMONY. HIGHLAND HERDING BY ANN WITTE. BAGPIPES 2003

(Note: Though years have lapsed since this was written, the principles still apply).

Sometimes the most important thing to do to assure a good practice or run gets lost in the shuffle – setting the tone of the work. The dogs that do daily work with stock go to the job relaxed; our weekend herder hits the high notes and starts out wired for sound; the net result resembles the clash of cymbals!

If, as will be the case for most Beardies, your dog has not yet learned a call-off (“That’ll Do” is most familiar) in the absolute sense. As you arrive at the training facility, your dog is barking and scrabbling to get going. Oops! He gets out of the car pulling madly on the leash to get to the sheep. Oops!

So next time you go to train, drive into the place, stop, and then drive away. Come back and leave again. Break the dog’s habit of over-reacting to the stimulus.

Next, take the dog out of the car, walk around a wee bit, then put him back in the car. Again, work on breaking the habit of being overly excited.

When you go to the sheep, if the dog even tries to pull toward the stock, have him stop, say “That’ll Do” and turn to walk away. Repeat this exercise until the words alone cause him to relax and turn away. Then the reward can be to actually work! Getting our furry friend to relax will also help pull in the Q scores (and better than before) at Trials.

(Note: Although the work to gain a calm attitude around stock takes time and effort, the rewards are huge. Just last fall I finally grasped that the most basic skill my current gal really needed was to be calm – not stop, not stay, not a flank, out, get back, or whatever. Simply, be calm. After several months work, I see that when she is calm, she can think; she isn’t tense like a weighted down spring; she isn’t pulling on the line; she can hear; I trust her working; I have even taken off the long line much of the time. Try it; your progress will be faster; you’ll enjoy training and trialing much more)

Beardie Camp is being held June 28 – 21 at Purina Farm. The deadline for registration is April 15th. For more information please visit our website at <http://beardedcollieclub.us/events/beardie-camp/>
