With the 2018 National Specialty very very soon, I send wishes for everyone to have success and enjoy the herding trial. We look forward to reading about the events in the next Bagpipes. Those entered are invited to write up a couple paragraphs about their

MY FIRST BEARDIE

Nancy Kois

We adopted Simon from a local rescue in September 2015 when he was approximately one year old. It seemed that he had not been socialized or had any training as he was afraid of everyone, everything, every place and barked constantly. After giving him a few weeks to get comfortable with us and his new home I enrolled him in obedience classes. In December 2015 we started agility classes because I know that it is a good sport for dogs to gain confidence and he needed an outlet for his energy. Our first class proved to be quite a challenge. Simon barked and tried chasing everyone and every dog that he saw running. A friend who had multiple dogs of various breeds suggested that I research and read about herding dogs and that would help me and Simon work better together. This was the best advice I was given since I was used to terriers. I researched, read a lot and asked lots of questions to all my friends that owned herding breed dogs. What an eye-opening experience it was for me to learn why Simon did certain things that my other dogs didn't do and it may be because of his breed.

Simon is my third agility dog but handles totally different than my other two that are medium/large terrier mixes. Henley, my first agility dog was fast, we ran in NADAC, so I learned distance handling. Brisco, agility dog number two learned distance because that is how I was used to handling my dogs and was what Simon learned as well. Henley was fast, but Simon is faster and much higher energy. Our training was quite a struggle at the beginning only because it was a big learning curve for me. I now had a big striding dog who did not necessarily like to collect, and I had to learn to give cues so much earlier than I was used to which proved to be a bit difficult for me. Simon loved to work with me, gave me everything he had and tried hard, so I was determined to figure this out.

NEW MEMBERS/RENEWAL UPDATE

During the club's last fiscal year (July 1, 2017 – June 30, 2018), the board voted 39 individuals (28 households) into membership. As of August 20, 2018, 77 members (62 households) had not paid their dues for 2018-2019. Several attempts were made to contact these members by a variety of methods (snail mail, e-mail, phone) and as of September 5, 2018, 38 members (31 households) remain unpaid and have been removed from the membership database.

We have been training for over two years and in the last six months I felt that we had taken a big step in making a better connection with each other but still didn't feel comfortable enough to enter a trial. When I heard that Beardie Camp 2018 was planning a two-day AKC trial I made it my goal for us to be ready for that and for it to be our first trial. What better way to start our agility career but at a Bearded Collie Club of America trial. I entered everything on both days – we were going for it all! Although we only Q'd on the Standard course on day one, I was happy with the connection we had for each run and how much fun we had. It was just amazing how supportive everyone was, along with cheering all the teams as they ran. The games, TUMPS and Relay Team, that we ran at the end of each trial day were fun and a great way for all the dogs to end the day.

It is now September and Simon and I have been to a handful of trials. He has earned his Novice Standard title and we have two Q's in JWW. I am working with a new instructor to help with my handling skills and plan on attending some seminars in 2019. I am looking forward to an awesome agility career with Simon.
